The Bonepicker

When you’re lying in the dust of fallen empires guts aspilled, for whom do you pray? The gods? This is their doing, all of it. Your bold comrades? If you could rely on them you wouldn’t be here. Your precious old mother? She’s a darling but what will she do for you but weep and mourn. No, you pray for death’s gray bird, a bonepicker, to lay a hand upon you, and the cauter, and to tell you whether you will live or die.

Bonepicker Moves

- Battlefield grace: while you are caring for people, not fighting, you get +1 armor.
- Canny: when you grasp outward into the world’s psychic maelstrom, roll+sharp instead of +weird.
- Detachment: you can choose to roll+sharp instead of roll+history when you help someone who’s rolling.
- The second devotion: burn incense against reluctance, whisper someone’s name to the world’s psychic maelstrom, and spend 0–3 devotion. Roll+devotion spent. On a 10+, choose 2. On a 7–9, choose 1:
  - The world’s psychic maelstrom whispers back whether they are alive or dead.
  - The world’s psychic maelstrom will protect them from harm, if it is able.
  - The world’s psychic maelstrom will do them harm, if it is able.
  - The world’s psychic maelstrom whispers back who they are with and what they are doing.
  - Recover 1 of the devotion you spent, if you spent any.
  On a miss, ask the MC what the world’s psychic maelstrom whispers to you.
- Still-room: you get a still-room, a ceremonial space (cf) of healing. Bring your patients into it and you can contemplate, understand, and transform them like a mystic can contemplate and transform reality.
- Necromancer: when someone dies in your care, you can use them for augury. This is contrary to your devotion, but still, you can.

Your Devotion

Your devotion allows you to speak life to the living and death to the dying.

The trappings of your devotion include some or all of:

- The cauter
- The misericorde (deadly: intimate)
- The gray bird’s wing
- The blindfold
- Bandages, knives, split-twig clamps, needles, a glass blade
- The seven salves: awakening, blood-stop, bone-set, leaping-heart, proof-against-pain, unwakening, and wound-knit
- The four incenses: against grief, against fear, against despair, and against reluctance

When you are fully rested, prepared, and initiated, you have a measure of 6 devotion. When you attend yourself to the wounded, you choose how much of your devotion and endurance to give to them, measured as 0–3 devotion “spent.”

You begin play with your full measure of 6 devotion. At need, you can spend 1 keep to recover 2 devotion, if your circumstances allow you the time to rest, prepare and renew your initiations.

When you devote yourself to someone with 1–3 wounds, don’t roll. They choose: you spend 1 devotion, and they spend their recovery time salved against pain and fear; or else you spend none and they recover in agony like everyone else.

When you devote yourself to someone with 4–6 wounds, roll+devotion spent. On a hit, you heal them down to 3 wounds, and choose 2 (on a 10+) or 1 (on a 7–9):

- They fight you and you must apply unwakening. How long will they be out?
- The pain, incense, and salves make them babble the truth. Ask them what secret they spill.
- Their body is eager to be healed. Recover 1 of the devotion you spent, if you spent any.
- They’re at your complete mercy. What do you do to them?
- Their course of recovery teaches you something about your own devotion. Mark experience.
- They owe you for your time, attention, and spent trappings, and you’re going to hold them to it.
- Your trappings of your devotion, without an acolyte, include some or all of:
- Bright eyes, caring eyes, clear eyes, hard face, rugged face, or strong face.
- Stout gray robes.
- Dark skin, light skin.
- The misericorde (deadly: intimate)
- Sturdy gray robes.
- Cool-1, Hard+1, Hot=0, Sharp+2, Weird+1
- You have an acolyte. When you spend your devotion, first your acolyte spends 1 on your behalf. Thus, to roll+1, spend only 0; to revive someone whose life has passed, spend only 2; and so on.

Your Keep

At the beginning of the session, spend 1, 2, or 3 keep for your lifestyle. If you can’t or won’t, tell the MC and answer her questions. You can earn your keep by: working the hard earth; tending to the health of a dozen families or more; serving in a powerful NPC’s army; serving a powerful NPC as priest and healer; or other means as you can negotiate them.

In addition to your lifestyle, you might spend your keep on: a night in high luxury and company; someone else’s protection, service, or labor; a weapon or other equipment; tribute to a warlord; the bribes required to turn someone’s eye or secure someone’s complicity; rich or beautiful clothing; or other things as you can arrange for them.

List the other characters’ names.

Go around again for history. On your turn, ask 1, 2, or all 3:

- Which one of you do I see as doomed to self-destruction?
- For that character, write history-2.
- Which one of you put a hand in when it mattered, and helped me save a life?
- For that character, write history+2.
- Which one of you has been beside me all along, and has seen everything I’ve seen?
- For that character, write history+3.
- For everyone else, write history+1. You keep your eyes open.

On the others’ turns, answer their questions as you like.

At the end, choose one of the characters with the highest history on your sheet. Ask that player which of your stats is most interesting, and highlight it. The MC will have you highlight a second stat too.

Child of Battle Moves

Anointed for battle: paint your skin with symbols of terror and power and they count as armor: 2 armor if you’re otherwise naked or nearly naked; 1 armor if you’re wearing non-armor clothing. When you wear armor, use it instead.

Ice cold: when you fly at an NPC, roll+cool instead of +hard. When you fly at another PC, roll+history instead. When you make a battle move that calls for you to roll+hard, you can roll+cool instead.

Like the viper: when you enter into a charged situation, roll+hot. On a 10+, hold 2. On a 7–9, hold 1. Spend your hold 1-for-1 to make eye contact with an NPC present; they freeze or flinch and can’t take action until you break it off. On a miss, your enemies immediately identify you as their foremost threat.

Merciless: when you inflict harm, inflict +1 harm.

Perfect instincts: when you’ve read a charged situation and you’re acting on the MC’s answers, take +2 to the roll instead of +1.

Visions of death: when you go into battle, roll+weird. On a 10+, name one NPC who’ll die and one NPC who’ll live. On a 7–9, name one NPC who’ll die OR one NPC who’ll live. The MC will make your vision come true, if it is within their power. On a miss, you foresee your own death, and take -1 ongoing until the battle ends.

You begin play with:

- 3 distinctive weapons or armor.
- Coin or goods worth 4 keep.
- Clothing suitable to your look (you detail), including at your option light armor (1 armor) or heavy armor (2 armor).

At the beginning of the session, spend 1, 2, or 3 keep for your lifestyle. If you can't or won't, tell the MC and answer her questions. You can earn your keep by: working the hard earth; extorting, raiding, or robbing a wealthy population; executing a murder on behalf of a wealthy NPC; serving a powerful NPC as bodyguard; or other means as you can negotiate them.

In addition to your lifestyle, you might spend your keep on: a night in high luxury and company; someone else's protection, service, or labor; a weapon or other equipment; tribute to a warlord; the bribes required to turn someone's eye or secure someone's complicity; rich or beautiful clothing; or other things as you can arrange for them.

Mesmerasts are the weird, creeping, spying psychic sorcerers of this world of fallen empires. They have powers of compulsion, sorcerous puppet strings, alien hearts, dead souls, and eyes like broken things. They stand in your peripheral vision and whisper into your head, staring. They place polished stones upon your eyes and read your secrets.

Mesmerast Moves

- Alien & compelling: when you try to seduce someone, roll+weird instead of roll+hot.
- Mesmeric initiate: you get +1weird (to weird+3).
- Psychic delve: when you have time and physical intimacy with someone—mutual intimacy like holding each other in your arms, or 1-sided intimacy like kneeling over them while they’re bound—you can reach your mind into their soul. Roll+weird. On a 10+, hold 3. On a 7–9, hold 2. Spend your hold 1 for 1 to ask their player questions:
  - What was your character’s lowest moment?
  - For what does your character crave forgiveness, and of whom?
  - What are your character’s secret pains?
  - In what ways are your character’s body and mind vulnerable to me?

  On a miss, you inflict 1 harm upon your subject, ignoring armor, to no benefit.

- Sorcerous puppet strings: when you have time and intimacy with someone—again, mutual or 1-sided—you can plant a command inside their mind. Roll+weird. On a 10+, hold 3. On a 7–9, hold 1. At your will, no matter the circumstances, you can spend your hold 1 for 1:
  - Inflict 1 harm upon them, ignoring armor.
  - They take -1 to the roll they’re making now.

  If they fulfill your command, it counts for all of your remaining hold and they’re free. On a miss, you inflict 1 harm upon them, ignoring armor, to no benefit.

- Unworldly senses: when you read someone, roll+weird instead of roll+sharp. Your victim has to be able to see you, but you need not interact in any way.
- Whispering malice: you can roll+weird to get the effect of flying at someone without making any physical motion. Your victim has to be able to see you, but you don’t have to interact. If your victim forces your hand, your mesmeric will counts as a weapon (1 harm, ignoring armor).

Mesmerast Trappings

- Incense: against reserve. Burn it where your subject will breathe it. While someone is breathing the smoke of incense against reserve, if you read them or use a mesmerast move on them that gives you hold, you get +1 hold—see reading a person, psychic delve and sorcerous puppet strings.

- Invested surrogate. Place it where your subject will be able to see it. For your purposes—see unworldly senses and whispering malice—if someone can see your invested surrogate, it is as though they can see you.

- Object of radiant misery. Breathe upon it and whisper the incantation to bring it to life. An invisible creature violently assaults the souls of everyone present, except you. They cannot defend themselves. It hits them for 1 harm apiece, ignoring armor, and then returns to lifelessness.

- Violation glove. Wear it. For your purposes—see psychic delve and sorcerous puppet strings—merely touching their skin with your violation glove counts as time and intimacy with them.

At the beginning of the session, spend 1, 2, or 3 keep for your lifestyle. If you can’t or won’t, tell the MC and answer her questions. You can earn your keep by: working the hard earth; interrogating a warlord NPC’s prisoners; serving a powerful NPC as kept mesmerast; extorting or blackmailing a powerful NPC; or other means as you can negotiate them.

When the golden empires of the world fell, their machinery of war did not save them. Their monstrous engines of war, their hundred-mile supply trains, their armies of thousands and hundreds of thousands, their legions of Countless, their legions of Immortals—when the empires fell, all fell.

In this time of dust, what is left is what there was before: a sword, an axe, a human creature with the will to wield them, a human creature with the will to lead.

Wolfshead Moves

- Bloody-crowned: when you try to impose your will upon your war-band, roll+hard. On a 10+, all 3. On a 7–9, choose 1:
  - They do what you order (otherwise, they refuse).
  - They don’t fight back over it (otherwise, they do fight back).
  - You don’t have to make an example of one of them (otherwise, you must).

- Foragers and thieves: when you have your war-band search their pockets and saddlebags for something, roll+hard. It has to be something small enough to be carried. On a 10+, one of you has just the thing. On a 7–9, one of you happens to have something similar, that will perhaps serve. On a miss, one of you used to have just the thing, but come to discover that now it’s missing, likely stolen in turn.

- Which one of you used to fight in my war-band?
- Which one of you once stood up to me, if it came to it?
- Which one of you used to fight in my war-band?

For everyone else, write history-1. Their affairs are not, you suppose, your concern.

For that character, write history+3.

Go around again for history. On your turn, ask 1, 2, or all 3:

- Which one of you used to fight in my war-band?
- Which one of you used to fight in my war-band?
- Which one of you once stood up to me, war-band and all?

For that character, write history+3.

For everyone else, write history-1. Their affairs are not, you suppose, your concern.

On the others’ turns, answer their questions as you like.

At the end, choose one of the characters with the highest history on your sheet. Ask that player which of your stats is most interesting, and highlight it. The MC will have you highlight a second stat too.

the Sword Master

When the great empires of the golden age fell, with them fell law and society. This world in their dust is ugly, desperate, violent. What’s yours is yours only while you can hold it in your hands. There’s no peace. There’s no stability but what you carve, inch by inch, out of the ruins and wilds, and then defend with murder and blood.

---

Sword Master Moves

- Battle-hardened: when you go into danger, roll+hard instead of roll+cool. When you make a battle move that calls for you to roll+cool, you can roll+hard instead.
- Battlefield instincts: when you grasp outward, roll+hard instead of roll+weird, but only in battle.
- Bloodcrazed: whenever you inflict harm, inflict +1 harm.
- Cauterizer: you know how to cauterize a wound, set a bone, supplicate death for life. This counts as a bonepicker’s devotion (cf), with a maximum of 2 devotion.
- Knight-killer: in battle, you count as a mounted warrior even on foot (+1 harm, +1 armor against non-mounted enemies; mounted enemies get no advantage against you).
- No fool, I: name your escape route and roll+hard. On a 10+, you win free and you’re gone. On a 7-9, you can go or stay, but if you go, it costs you: leave something behind, or take something with you, and the MC will tell you what. On a miss, you’re caught vulnerable, half in and half out.
- Ruthless: you get +1hard (to hard+3).

You can earn your keep by: working the hard earth; extorting, raiding, or robbing a wealthy population; executing a murder on behalf of a wealthy NPC; serving a powerful NPC as bodyguard; or other means as you can negotiate them.

In addition to your lifestyle, you might spend your keep on: a night in high luxury and company; someone else’s protection, service, or labor; a weapon or other equipment; tribute to a warlord; the bribes required to turn someone’s eye or secure someone’s complicity; rich or beautiful clothing; or other things as you can arrange for them.

  For that character, write history-2.
- Which one of you has fought shoulder to shoulder with me?
  For that character, write history+2.

For everyone else, write history-1. You find no urgent need to understand most people.

On the others’ turns, answer their questions as you like.

At the end, choose one of the characters with the highest history on your sheet. Ask that player which of your stats is most interesting, and highlight it. The MC will have you highlight a second stat too.

Goals
During play, it’s your job to have your character make and pursue goals. They can be any goals you want, long term and short-. Begin by thinking what your goals might be this very morning, as play begins.

Each time you improve, choose one of the options. Check it off; you can’t choose it again.
The Strongholder

In the golden age of empires now fallen, there were no strongholders. There were lords and ladies, who must bow to the great crowned heads; and the great crowned heads must kneel on their faces before empires.

An empire was not a battered baked-mud fortress at the curve of a river, it spanned nations and continents. An army was not a little band of sword-arms, it was a thousand thousand in rank, mounted on war-horses, on chariots, on elephants, on engines of war whose skeletons still, here and there, stand.

Strongholder Moves

- Leadership: when your war-band does battle for you, spend 1 more than your roll would give you.
- Wealth: When your stronghold is secure and your rule unchallenged, at the beginning of the session, roll+hard. On a 10+, you have plenty at hand and available for the needs of the session. On a 7-9, you have plenty, but choose 1 want. On a miss, or if your stronghold is compromised or your rule contested, your hold is in want. The precise values of your plenty and want depend upon the details of your stronghold.

Other Moves

You have plenty:
- Get +1 hard (max hard+3)
- Get +1 cool (max cool+2)
- Get +1 hot (max hot+2)
- Get +1 sharp (max sharp+2)
- Get +1 weird (max weird+2)

- Retire your character to safety
- Create a second character to play
- Change your character to a new playbook
- Choose 3 basic moves and advance them
- Advance the other 4 basic moves

Your Keep

Your stronghold provides for your day-to-day living, so while you’re there ruling it, you need not spend barter for your lifestyle at the beginning of the session.

When you give gifts, these might be worth 1 keep:
- a month’s hospitality, including a place to live and meals in common with others; a night in high luxury and company; a bodyguard’s protection; a servant’s service; a weapon or other equipment; a half-hour’s worth of your undivided attention, in private audience; rich or beautiful clothing; or, of course, the requisite coins.

In times of abundance, your stronghold’s plenty is yours to spend personally as you see fit; your share, levy, or tax. You can suppose that your subjects’ lives are the more abundant too, in proportion.
By default, your stronghold is home to 75-150 souls, who survive by hunting, simple farming, and scavenging (plenty: 1 keep, want: hunger). It’s protected by simple ditches and fences (+1 armor to defenders). You command a warband of about 40 violent people, with an armory of scavenged and makeshift weapons and simple armor (medium war-band, 3 harm, 1 armor). Your stables keep mounts for 8 warriors, plus pack animals; choose camels (fast=0, strong+2, hungry=0, stubborn), elephants (fast-1, strong+3, hungry+2, cowardly, huge), or horses (fast+1, strong+1, hungry+1, tempermental).

Then, choose 4:
- Your subjects are many, 200-300 souls (plenty: +1 keep, want: disease).
- Your subjects are few, 50-60 souls (want: anxiety instead of want: hunger).
- Your war-band engages in lucrative raiding (plenty: +1 keep, want: reprisals).
- Your subjects include skilled tradespeople (plenty: +1 keep, want: idleness).

Your stronghold includes a bustling market commons (surplus: +1 keep, want: strangers).

And choose 2:
- Your warband’s armory is well-stocked and maintained (+1 harm, +1 armor).
- Your stronghold is defended by concentric ditches and stone walls (+2 armor to defenders instead of +1).
- Your stables keep mounts for 16 warriors, in addition to pack animals.
- Your warband is large, 60 violent people or so (large war-band instead of medium).
- Your warband’s armory is very poor (-1 harm, -1 armor).
- Your stronghold has no permanent defenses (no armor bonus to defenders).
- Your stables keep no mounts for warriors, only pack animals.

To create your stronghold, choose name, look, stats, moves, equipment, stronghold, and history.

Name
Blache, Boleyr, Borbeq, Dunnerre, Lin, Marca, Simos, Sumia, Ucli.

Look

- Cool=0, Hard+2, Hot+1, Sharp-1, Weird+1

Moves
You get all the basic moves and both stronghold moves.

Equipment
Detail your holding.
In addition, you begin play with:
- Dagger (deadly: inflicting)
- Sword (deadly: on the field, hand-to-hand).
- Mail coat, helmet, boots (2 armor).
- Clothing suitable to your look (you detail).

History
Everyone introduces their characters by name, look and outlook. Take your turn.
List the other characters’ names.
Go around again for history. On your turn, ask either or both:
- Which of you have been with me since before?
  For those characters, write history+2.
  For those character, write history+3.
- Have any of you ever betrayed or stolen from me?
  For those character, write history+3.

For everyone else, write history+1. It’s in your interests to know everyone’s business.

On the others’ turns, answer their questions as you like.
At the end, choose one of the characters with the highest history on your sheet.
Ask that player which of your stats is most interesting, and highlight it. The MC will have you highlight a second stat too.

the Hocus

When the empires fell, did their gods fall with them, swept away by the same psychic maelstrom of hate and violence? Or, was it that their gods abandoned them, leaving them exposed to the maelstrom at last? Or again, was it that their gods turned on them, and the maelstrom was their unsheathed sword?

Here in the dust of their fall, only this is certain: the gods are gone, and the maelstrom remains.

Hocus Moves

- Fortunes: fortune, plenty, and want all depend upon your followers. At the beginning of the session, roll+fortune. On a 10+, your followers have plenty. On a 7-9, they have plenty, but choose 1 want. On a miss, they are in want. If their plenty lists keep, like 1 keep or 2 keep, that’s your personal share, to spend for your lifestyle or for what you will.
- Charismatic: when you try to manipulate someone, roll+weird instead of roll+hot.
- Frenzy: when you speak the truth to a mob, roll+weird. On a 10+, hold 3. On a 7-9, hold 1. Spend your hold 1 for 1 to make the mob:
  • Bring people forward and deliver them to you.
  • Bring forward all their precious things.
  • Unite and fight for you as a war-band (size appropriate, 2 harm, 0 armor).
  • Fall into an orgy of uninhibited emotion: coupling, lamenting, fighting, sharing, celebrating, as you choose.
  • Go quietly back to their lives.
On a miss, the mob turns on you.
- Prey to inexpressible impulses: you get +1 weird (to weird+3).
- Sanctified: the world’s psychic maelstrom gives you +1 armor.
- Seeing souls: when you help or interfere with someone, you can roll+weird instead of roll+history.

Your Keep

At the beginning of the session, spend 1, 2, or 3 keep for your lifestyle. If you can’t or won’t, tell the MC her questions. You can earn your keep by:

- working the hard earth; serving a powerful NPC as auger and advisor; serving a powerful NPC as ceremonist; serving a population as counselor and intercessor; or other means as you can negotiate them.

In addition to your lifestyle, you might spend your keep on:

- a night in high luxury and company; someone else’s protection, service, or labor; a weapon or other equipment; tribute to a warlord; the bribes required to turn someone’s eye or secure someone’s complicity; rich or beautiful clothing; or other things as you can arrange for them.

Empires fell. Empires always fall. The world is alive.
In your ceremonial space you can discover the truth about something, transform something, or imbue something with magical power. Tell the MC what, and answer the MC’s questions. Once the MC understands your undertaking, they’ll tell you what it will require.

MC, choose 1-4 of the following:
• It’s going to take hours/days/weeks/months of work and attention.
• First you’ll have to get/build/fix/figure out ___.
• You’re going to need ___’s help and insight.
• It’s going to cost you a great deal of money.
• You cannot be certain of your results; they’ll be weak or unreliable.
• It’s going to mean exposing yourself (plus any others who work with you) to serious danger.
• You’re going to have to add ___ to your ceremonial space first.
• It’s going to take several/dozens/hundreds of tries.
• You’re going to have to take ___ apart to do it.

MC, connect them all with “and,” or throw in a merciful “or.”

Once you’ve accomplished the necessaries, you can proceed to accomplish the thing itself. Ask the MC the details of what you’ve learned or created.

- Which of you is the most strange?
  For that character, write history+1.
- Which of you is the most curious?
  For that character, write history+1.
- Which of you is the biggest potential problem?
  For that character, write history+2.
For everyone else, write history-1. You have other things to.
On the others’ turns, answer their questions as you like.
At the end, choose one of the characters with the highest history on your sheet.
Ask that player which of your stats is most interesting, and highlight it. The MC will have you highlight a second stat too.

Goals
During play, it’s your job to have your character make and pursue goals. They can be any goals you want, long term and short-. Begin by thinking what your goals might be this very morning, as play begins.

Improvement
Whenever you roll a highlighted stat, and whenever you reset your history with someone, mark an experience circle. When you mark the 5th, improve and erase.
Each time you improve, choose one of the options. Check it off; you can’t choose it again.
Go into danger
Fly at someone; Waylay someone; Do battle
Seduce or manipulate someone
Read a person; Read a situation
Grasp outward
Help or interfere; Session end
If you and another character have sex, choose 1:
• You take +1 forward and so do they.
• You take +1 forward, but they take -1 forward.
• They must give you a gift worth at least 1 keep.
• You get +1 history with them; at your choice, they get +1 history with you.
• You can hypnotize them as though you'd rolled a 10+, even if you haven't chosen to get the move.

The oldest living remember it, a childhood time of terror, the great cities of empire thrashing, burning, falling. Thousands of years of culture, the greatest achievements of civilization, lost in dust and smoke and hate.

There is a new beauty come into the world now, though, wild, sharp. The glittering frost, the slim blade, the poison flower. There's little in it of kindness, but still, it is beautiful.

Artful & gracious: when you perform your chosen art—any act of expression or culture—or when you put your chosen art before an audience, roll+hot. On a 10+, spend 3. On a 7-9, spend 1. Spend 1 to name an NPC member of your audience and choose one:
This person must meet me.
This person must have my services.
This person loves me.
This person must give me a gift.
This person admires my patron.
On a miss, you gain no benefit, but suffer no harm or lost opportunity. You simply perform very well.

Breathtaking: you get +1 hot (to hot+3).

Hypnotic: when you have time and solitude with someone, they become fixated upon you. Roll+hot. On a 10+, hold 3. On a 7-9, hold 2. They can spend your hold, 1 for 1, by:
• Giving you something you want.
• Acting as your eyes and ears.
• Fighting to protect or champion you.
• Doing what you ask them to do.
For NPCs, while you have hold over them they simply can’t act against you. For PCs, instead, any time you like you can spend your hold, 1 for 1:
• They distract themselves with the thought of you. They’re going into danger.
• They inspire themselves with the thought of you. They take +1 right now.
On a miss, they hold 2 over you, on the exact same terms.

Lost: when you whisper someone’s name to the world’s psychic maelstrom, roll+weird. On a hit, they come to you, with or without any clear explanation why. On a 10+, take +1 forward against them as well. On a miss, ask the MC what or who the world’s psychic maelstrom brings to you instead.

Radiant passion: when you make a show and display of passion—anguish, desire, fury, any—no one who can see you can do anything but watch. You command their absolute attention. If you choose, you can exempt individual people, by name.

Gracious weapons (choose 2):
- A dagger with a worked-gold hilt and golden blade inlay (deadly: infighting)
- A hunting bow and swan-fletched arrows (range, deadly: aimed)
- A jasper-handled throwing knife (thrown, deadly: woylay)
- A magical spell that strikes your enemy’s heart as with skewers of glass (thrown, ignores armor)
- A magical spell that turns your enemy’s blade aside at the last instant (1 armor)
- A slim and jewel-hilted sword (deadly: hand-to-hand)

Precious things (choose 2):
- A case of cedar-wood, beautifully carved with many figures.
- A circlet of beaten gold, primitive in style but shockingly rich in design.
- Gold and silver coins showing the faces of ancient emperors, drilled to wear as jewelry.
- A magical spell that, cast in darkness, hides you from the view of both friend and enemy, until once you speak aloud.
- A magical spell that, cast in a high and exposed place, calls to you the spirit of its wild wind. Ask the spirit three questions about what it has touched.
- A magical spell that, cast upon a pair of shoes, carries their wearer high into the air, to alight safely where they choose.
- A polished glass lens in an engraved silver frame. Peer through it; it enlarges what you examine.
- A polished silver mirror, backed with cavorting figures in inlaid gold.
- A trailing cape made of the winter fur of leopards.
- A veil of silk, shining white, weighted with polished stone beads.

- Cool+1, Hard+1, Hot+2, Sharp+1, Weird-2

Moves
You get all the basic moves, and choose 2 nightshade moves.
You can use all the battle moves, but learn keeping lookout, standing guard, baiting a trap, and turning the tables first.

Equipment
You begin play with:
- 2 gracious weapons.
- 2 precious things.
- Coin or goods worth 2 keep.
- Clothing suitable to your look (you detail).

At the beginning of the session, spend 1, 2, or 3 keep for your lifestyle. If you can't or won't, tell the MC and answer her questions. You can earn your keep by: working the hard earth; performing for a public audience, for their coins; performing for a private audience, for their commission; appearing at the side of a powerful NPC; or other means as you can negotiate them.

In addition to your lifestyle, you might spend your keep on: a night in high luxury and company; someone else’s protection, service, or labor; a weapon or other equipment; tribute to a warlord; the bribes required to turn someone’s eye or secure someone’s complicity; rich or beautiful clothing; or other things as you can arrange for them.
Basic Moves

All player characters can use all the basic moves.

Go Into Danger

When you go into danger, or hold your course despite danger, roll+cool. On a 10+, you do it. On a 7–9, you flinch, hesitate, or stall: the MC can offer you a worse outcome, a hard bargain, or an ugly choice. On a miss, be prepared for the worst.

Advanced: on a 12+, you transcend the danger. You do what you set out to do, and the MC must offer you a better outcome, true beauty, inspiration, or a moment of grace.

Fly at Someone

When you fly at someone, roll+hard. On a 10+, they have to choose:
• Force your hand and suffer the consequences
• Submit and do what you want
On a 7–9, they can choose 1 of the above, or 1 of the following:
• Let you past unhindered.
• Retreat to a safe position.
• Give you what they think you want, or tell you what they think you want to hear.
• Back off calmly, hands where you can see.
...And if they've misjudged you, you can press them.
On a miss, be prepared for the worst.

Advanced: on a 12+, if they do not submit and do what you want, you choose:
• Disable, disarm, and capture them.
• Humilate them before inflicting harm as established.
• Killing them outright.

Waylay Someone

When you attack someone unsuspecting or helpless, ask the MC if there's a chance that they can fight back. If there is, treat it as flying at them, but your victim has no choice to submit; they must choose something else. If there isn't a chance, you simply inflict harm as established.

In Battle

When you're in battle, you can bring the battle moves into play.

Advanced: For all the battle moves that give you a choice, on a 12+, you get +1 choice.

Seduce or Manipulate Someone

When you try to seduce or manipulate someone, tell them what you want and roll+hot. For NPCs: on a hit, they ask you to promise something first, and do it if you promise.

On a 10+, whether you keep your promise is up to you, later. On a 7–9, they need some concrete assurance right now. For PCs: on a hit, they ask you to promise something first, and do it if you promise.

On a 7–9, let them choose a stat highlight to improve for the remainder of the session.
On a miss, they may choose to ignore you or take +1 to their Hx with you on their sheet.

Advanced: on a 12+, on their sheet. If this brings them to Hx +4, they reset to Hx +1 (and therefore mark experience). If no one knows you better, choose a character who doesn't know you as well as they thought, or choose any character at your whim. Tell that player to take -1 to their Hx with you on their sheet. If this brings them to Hx -3, they reset to Hx 0 (and therefore mark experience).

Read a Person

When you read a person in a charged interaction, roll+sharp. On a 10+, hold 3. On a 7–9, hold 1. While you're interacting with them, spend your hold to ask their player questions, 1 for 1:
• is your character telling the truth?
• what's your character really feeling?
• what does your character intend to do?
• what does your character wish I’d do?
• how could I get your character to ___?
On a miss, ask 1 anyway, but be prepared for the worst.

Advanced: on a 12+, hold 3, but spend them 1 for 1 to ask any question you like.

Read a Situation

When you read a charged situation, roll+sharp. On a hit, you can ask the MC questions.
Whenever you act on one of the MC's answers, take +1. On a 10+, ask 3. On a 7–9, ask 1:
• where's my best escape route / way in / way past?
• which enemy is most vulnerable to me?
• which enemy is the biggest threat?
• what should I be on the lookout for?
• what's my enemy's true position?
• who's in control here?
On a miss, ask 1 anyway, but be prepared for the worst.

Advanced: on a 12+, ask any 3 questions you like.

Grasp Outward

When you grasp blindly outward from yourself into the world’s psychic maelstrom, roll+weird. On a hit, the MC will tell you something new and interesting about the current situation, and might ask you a question or two; answer them. On a 10+, the MC will give you good detail. On a 7–9, the MC will give you an impression. If you already know all there is to know, the MC will tell you that. On a miss, be prepared for the worst.

Advanced: on a 12+, you reach through the world’s psychic maelstrom to what’s beyond.

Help or Interfere

When you help or interfere with someone who's making a roll, roll+Hx. On a 10+, they take +2 (help) or -2 (interfere) to their roll. On a 7–9, they take +1 (help) or -1 (interfere) to their roll. On a miss, be prepared for the worst.

Session End

At the end of every session, choose a character who knows you better than they used to. If there's more than one, choose one at your whim. Tell that player to add +1 to their Hx with you on their sheet. If this brings them to Hx +4, they reset to Hx +1 (and therefore mark experience). If no one knows you better, choose a character who doesn't know you as well as they thought, or choose any character at your whim. Tell that player to take -1 to their Hx with you on their sheet. If this brings them to Hx -3, they reset to Hx 0 (and therefore mark experience).
Harm & Healing

Establishing Harm:
- If you’re fighting unarmed, you inflict 1 harm.
- If you’re fighting armed, within your weapon’s range, you inflict 2 harm.
- If you’re fighting when and where your weapon is deadly, you inflict 3 harm.
- Subtract your armor from the harm against you.

Ranges:
Weapons have three ranges: at range, thrown, and within reach. A weapon’s range is within reach unless its listing specifies at range or thrown.

Weapons can’t be brought to bear outside their range. However, the ranges overlap: the nearest part of at range overlaps with the farthest part of thrown, and the nearest part of thrown overlaps with the farthest part of within reach.

Many within reach weapons are most deadly at a particular distance. These are: on the field (the furthest reach, requiring the most freedom of motion), then hand-to-hand, then infighting, then brawling, then intimate. If two combatants have complete freedom of motion, then the one with the further reach sets the distance at which they’re fighting. If your enemy has reach on you, you can close to your own preferred distance only if you can keep your enemy from moving freely away again.

Reaches:
- On the field is when you can sprint, stride and swing your weapon at full reach, in any direction. Examples: on a field, on a road, in a wide yard.
- Hand-to-hand is when you can approach and withdraw freely, but not circle your enemy or run in any direction you like. Examples: in a forest, on a bridge, in a wide hallway.
- Infighting is when you are confined to a small space, without room or freedom to charge or withdraw. Examples: in a boat, in a small room, in a tight hallway.
- Brawling is when you are grappling, holding, and wrestling with your enemy.
- Intimate is when you have your enemy in your power, unable to move at all.

Suffering Harm

By default, the harm & healing moves are in play. The MC might decide to forego them, case by case.

This move is unusual in that a hit is bad for the player and a miss is good:

When you suffer harm, roll+weird. On a 10+, the MC can choose:
- You’re out of action: unconscious, trapped, incoherent or panicked.
- It’s worse than it seemed. Take an additional 1-harm.
- Choose 2 from the 7–9 list below.

On a 7–9, the MC can choose 1:
- You lose your footing.
- You lose your grip on whatever you’re holding.
- You lose track of someone or something you’re attending to.
- You miss noticing something important.

On a miss, the MC can nevertheless choose something from the 7–9 list above. If she does, though, it’s instead of some of the harm you’re suffering, so you take -1harm.

Inflicting Harm

When you inflict harm on another player’s character, the other character gets +1Hx with you (on their sheet) for every segment of harm you inflict. If this brings them to Hx+4, they reset to Hx+1 as usual, and therefore mark experience.

Healing Harm

When you heal another player’s character’s harm, you get +1Hx with them (on your sheet) for every segment of harm you heal. If this brings you to Hx+4, you reset to Hx+1 as usual, and therefore mark experience.

When you hurt someone, they see you more clearly. When you heal someone, you see them more clearly.

Commerce Moves

By default, characters have access to the commerce moves, but the MC might decide to limit them, case by case.

When you give 1 keep’s worth of coin or goods to someone, but with strings attached, it counts as manipulating them and hitting the roll with a 10+, no roll required.

When you go into a bustling market, looking for some particular thing to buy, and it’s not already obvious that you’ll be able to find it for sale, roll+sharp. On a 10+, yes, you find it for sale. On a 7–9, the MC chooses one of the following:
- It costs 1 keep’s worth more than you’d expect
- It’s not openly for sale, but you find someone who can lead you to someone selling it
- It’s not openly for sale, but you find someone who sold it recently, who may be willing to introduce you to their previous buyer
- It’s not available for sale, but you find something similar. Will it do?

When you make known that you want something, that you’ll pay to speed it on its way, roll+keep spent (max roll+3). It has to be something you could legitimately get this way. On a 10+ it comes to you, no strings attached. On a 7–9 it comes to you, or something pretty close. On a miss, it comes to you, but with strings very much attached.

Insight

By default, nobody has access to insight, but a hocus or patron might get it.

When you call upon NPCs for insight, ask them what they think your best course is, and the MC will tell you. If you pursue that course, take +1 to any rolls you make in the pursuit. If you pursue that course but don’t accomplish your ends, you mark experience.

Augury

By default, nobody has access to augury, but a hocus’ followers or a mystic’s ceremonial space might give it.

When you use your followers or your ceremonial space for augury, roll+weird. On a hit, you can choose 1:
- Reach through the world’s psychic maelstrom to something or someone connected to it.
- Isolate and protect a person or thing from the world’s psychic maelstrom.
- Isolate and contain a fragment of the world’s psychic maelstrom itself.
- Speak words into the world’s psychic maelstrom.
- Open a window into the world’s psychic maelstrom.

By default, the effect will last only as long as you hold it, will reach only shallowly into the world’s psychic maelstrom as it is local to you, and will bleed instability. On a 10+, choose 2; on a 7–9, choose 1:
- It’ll persist (for a while) without your actively holding it.
- It reaches deep into the world’s psychic maelstrom.
- It reaches broadly throughout the world’s psychic maelstrom.
- It’s stable and contained, no bleeding.

On a miss, whatever bad happens, your followers or ceremonial space bear the brunt.
Battle Moves

Everyone character can use all the battle moves.

Single Combat

When you do single combat with someone, no quarters, exchange harm, but first roll+hard. On a 10+, both. On a 7–9, choose 1. On a miss, your opponent chooses 1 against you:

- you inflict terrible harm (+1harm)
- you suffer little harm (-1harm)

After you exchange harm, do you prefer to end the fight now, or fight on? Commit without knowing the other’s choice. If both of you prefer to end the fight now, it ends. If both of you prefer to fight on, it continues, and you must make the move again. If one of you prefers to end the fight, though, and the other to fight on, then the former must either flee or else submit to the latter’s mercy.

A Chaotic Free-for-all

When you’re in a chaotic free for all, the mass of combatants suffers harm as established, as a single war-band inflicting harm upon itself, but first roll+cool. On a 10+, choose 3. On a 7–9, choose 2. On a miss, choose 1:

- You are able to avoid taking any harm yourself.
- You are able to protect another character from taking any harm.
- You add to the chaos. The combatants as a whole inflict and suffer +1harm.
- You are able to calm the chaos. The combatants as a whole inflict and suffer -1harm.
- You are able to take a single short action, uninterfered with, perhaps unnoticed.

Assault a Position

To assault a secure position, exchange harm, but first roll+hard. On a 10+, choose 3. On a 7–9, choose 2. On a miss, choose 1:

- You inflict terrible harm (+1harm).
- You suffer little harm (-1harm).
- You force your way into your enemy’s position
- You force your enemy to withdraw

Seize Something by Force

To seize something valuable by force, exchange harm, but first roll+hard. On a 10+, choose 3. On a 7–9, choose 2. On a miss, choose 1:

- You inflict terrible harm (+1harm).
- You suffer little harm (-1harm).
- You take definite and undeniable control of it.
- It’s safe, secure, and undamaged in the fighting.

Defend Something You Hold

To defend something you hold, a position, person, or thing, exchange harm, but first roll+hard. On a 10+, choose 3. On a 7–9, choose 2. On a miss, choose 1:

- You inflict terrible harm (+1harm).
- You suffer little harm (-1harm).
- You hold it decisively against your enemy’s advance.
- You impress, dismay, or frighten your enemy.

Hold an Enemy Off

When you fight to hold an enemy off, roll+hard. On a 10+, choose 3. On a 7–9, choose 2. On a miss, choose 1:

- You buy an ally the liberty to move or act freely.
- You give another PC +1 choice to their own battle move.
- You deny an enemy the chance to move or act freely. (If a PC, they may still act under fire.)
- You take an opportune shot, inflicting harm on an enemy within your reach.

Stand Guard

When you stand guard over an ally, roll+cool. On a hit, if anyone attacks or interferes with your ally, you attack them and inflict harm, no roll or move required. On a 10+, choose 1:

- ...And you inflict your harm before they can carry out their attack or interference.
- ...And you inflict terrible harm (+1 harm).

On a miss, you are able to warn your ally but not attack your enemy.

Keep Lookout

When you keep lookout for what’s coming, roll+sharp. On a 10+, hold 3. On a 7–9, hold 2. On a miss, hold 1. During the battle, spend your hold, 1 for 1, to ask the MC what’s coming and choose 1:

- Direct a PC ally’s attention to an enemy. If they make a battle move against that enemy, they get +1 choice to their move.
- Give a PC ally an order, instruction, or suggestion. If they do it, they get +1 to any rolls they make in the effort.
- Direct any ally’s attention to an enemy. If they attack that enemy, they inflict +1 harm.
- Direct any ally’s attention to a danger. They take -1 harm from that danger.

Bait a Trap

When you’re the bait, roll+cool. On a 10+, choose 2. On a 7–9, choose 1:

- You draw your prey all the way into the trap. Otherwise, they only approach.
- Your prey doesn’t suspect you. Otherwise, they’re wary and alert.
- You don’t expose yourself to extra risk. Otherwise, any harm your prey inflicts is +1.

On a miss, the MC chooses 1 for you.

Hunt Prey

When you’re the cat, roll+cool. On a hit, you catch your prey out. On a 10+, you’ve driven them first to a place of your choosing; say where. On a 7–9, you’ve had to follow them where they wanted to go; they say where. On a miss, your prey escapes you.

Escape a Hunter

When you’re the mouse, roll+cool. On a 10+, you escape clean and leave your hunter hunting. On a 7–9, your hunter catches you out, but only after you’ve led them to a place of your choosing; say where. On a miss, your hunter catches you out and the MC says where.

Turn the Tables

When you don’t know whether you’re the cat or the mouse, roll+sharp. On a hit, you decide which you are. On a 10+, you take +1 forward as well. On a miss, you’re the mouse.
Mounted Battle Moves

Outdistance or Overtake Another Rider

When you try to outdistance or overtake another rider, roll+cool, modified by your mounts’ relative speed. On a 10+, you outdistance them and get away, or else overtake them and draw alongside. On a 7–9, choose 1:
- You outdistance them and escape, but your mount suffers 1-harm ap from the strain.
- Or, you overtake them, but your mount suffers 1-harm ap the same.
- Or, you don’t escape them, but you can go to ground in a place you choose.
- Or, you don’t overtake them, but you can drive them into a place you choose.

On a miss, your counterpart chooses 1 against you.

Deal with Bad Terrain

When you have to deal with bad terrain, roll+cool, plus your mount’s strength. On a 10+, you race through untouched. On a 7–9, choose 1:
- You slow down and pick your way forward.
- You push too hard and your mount suffers harm as established.
- You must go back or try to find another way.

On a miss, the MC chooses 1 for you; the others are impossible.

Leap Onto a Moving Animal

To leap onto a moving animal, roll+cool, minus its speed. On a 10+, you’re on and you made it look easy. Take +1 forward. On a 7–9, you’re on, but you’re in a poor position and you certainly aren’t in control. On a miss, the MC chooses: you’re hanging on for dear life, or you’re down and good luck to you.

Shoulder Another Rider

To shoulder another rider, roll+cool. On a hit, you shoulder them aside. On a 10+, you further force them to draw up, break off, or loose their seating. On a miss, they shoulder you aside instead.

Unseat a Rider

To unseat a rider, inflict 1 or more harm, and declare that you unseat them. They can choose to keep the saddle instead, but must suffer +1 harm to do so.

---

Keep & Lifestyle

At the beginning of the session, spend 1, 2, or 3 keep for your lifestyle (plus your mount’s hungry, if you have one). If you can’t or won’t, tell the MC and answer her questions.

Imagine four possible lifestyles, relative to one another, here in the dust of fallen empires. First is the typical one: you eat what the people around you eat, wear what they wear, sleep where they sleep. Spend 1 keep at the beginning of the session to live this life.

Next is better: you eat first and best, as an honored guest, a beloved leader, or a feared intruder. You wear finer clothing than the people around you, and sleep apart from them, in greater comfort. Spend 2 keep at the beginning of the session to live this life.

Next is better still: you do not eat the best of their food, but better food, food of your own, prepared by your own servants, of ingredients not available to the people around you. You wear clothing the like of which they have never before seen; kingly, queenly stuff. You sleep in luxury. Spend 3 keep at the beginning of the session to live this life.

Last is worst: you are starving, in rags, desperate, dying of hunger, thirst, and exposure. This is what it should mean to spend 0 keep at the beginning of the session, and it might. But first, answer the MC’s questions.

MC, start with, “then who will pay 1 keep to keep __ alive?”

If someone will, good. Let them work out the debt, gift, or exchange between them.

If no one will, though, choose:
- Choose an NPC who’ll provide for them. Tell them so, and ask whether they’ll accept their patronage. Likely there are strings attached.
- Ask them, “so, who do you think should pay for your keep? How do you approach them?” Play it out in summary or in detail.
- Give them an opportunity to work for their keep before it comes to its worst case. Ask them what they propose to do, and for whom, or choose an NPC yourself to offer them work.
- Or they are, yes, desperate and starving after all. Inflict harm, take away their stuff. Tell them their circumstances now and ask what they do.

Someone has to pay for their keep, or they have none.

Working for Your Keep

Working the hard earth is worth 1 keep.

Other duties should be worth 2–4 keep, depending on both how onerous they are and how well you perform them. Expect 3 keep, be grateful for 4, and resent 2.

When you work, the MC gets to choose:
- The MC describes the work you do very quickly, in summary.
- You play out the work you do, making moves and conducting play as normal.
- Make a single move or a quick snowball of moves to see how it goes.

At the end, the MC tells you how much it was worth.
